

Is your operation Fleet Maintenance compliant?

Whether you carry out your own vehicle maintenance or contract it to a garage - keeping your vehicles in a roadworthy condition helps keep road users safe, is good for the environment and good for business.

Suitable for

Fleet Managers
Workshop Personnel
Vehicle Maintenance Supervisors

RHA Training's one day course aims to give fleet managers, transport managers and workshop personnel the knowledge of the requirements under the relevant Goods or passenger carrying vehicle legislation regarding the maintenance of vehicles and trailers and includes the following subjects:

Course Content

Regulations & Operator Licence obligations maintain
Guide to roadworthiness
Daily checks
Reporting defects & rectification process
Preventive Maintenance
Inspections Documentation
Methods of inspection Brake testing
Keeping data Inspection technician Facilities
Annual Test preparation
Test booking systems
VOR system
Maintenance & servicing
New technology Tachograph
Wheel security
Keeping records
Monitoring
Checks GB OCRS score
Fixed penalties
Roadside encounters

Course Outcome

Improved knowledge of your Legal Requirements

Understanding costs of defects and Large Vehicle Inspection Manual

Comprehensive training on correct documentation

Delivered on the operator's premises focusing on the main systems and procedures.

Cost £795 + VAT (RHAMember) Up to 6 delegates
 £895 + VAT (non-member) Up to 6 delegates

How to Book

Check dates you are available and get in touch with us to finalise details.

Email – training@rha.uk.net

Telephone Paul – 01733 261 456 (Eng & Wales)

Email - training-sconi@rha.uk.net

Telephone Chelsea – 01506 414 073(Sco&NI)